

Pretest 4

I. Draw one line under each adjective and two lines under each adverb. (Score: 6)

- Anton van Leeuwenhoek was the one who first recognized bacteria.
- He successfully made powerful microscopes.
- The magnifying lenses enabled him to see extremely small organisms.

II. Change the following adjectives to adverbs. (Score: 4)

- eager _____
- sad _____
- angry _____
- weary _____

III. Write synonyms for the following words. (Score: 2)

- difficult _____
- cautious _____

IV. Write the possessive forms of the following nouns. (Score: 2)

- boys _____
- Jess _____

V. Rewrite the following words, placing hyphens between the syllables. (Score: 4)

- waited _____
- rattle _____
- watchful _____
- quiet _____

VI. In the following letter draw a line under each word that should begin with a capital letter. Place punctuation marks where they are needed. (Score: 24)

potosi missouri 63664
february 17 1964

seymore optical company 1620 west main street
milwaukee wisconsin 53214
dear sir or madam

please send me your free booklet about microscopes

very truly yours
christi blair

VII. Draw one line under the proper word in parentheses. (Score: 7)

- Leeuwenhoek examined many insects and observed (their, there) habits.
- Each (won, one) of his observations was described (good, well).
- He was the man (who, which) wrote (a, an) accurate description of red cells.
- Leeuwenhoek (became, become) famous for the work he (did, done).