The Long Way to a New Land

Day 6 Chapters 4–5

To Discuss After You Read

Q: What happened while sailing across the sea? [chap. 4]
A: a storm came up, which made people seasick; everyone was locked under the deck, and some became ill with fever

Q: Was Carl Erik happy to arrive in America? [chap. 5]
A: yes—he got to eat bread and butter, his father had work, and they had hope for a better life

The Long Way Westward

Day 7 Chapter 1

Setting
From New York to Minnesota in the late 1860s.

Overview
After Carl Erik and his family reach New York, they have several more days of travel on several slow trains before they reach their relatives in Minnesota.

To Discuss After You Read

Q: Describe the different railroad cars.
A: the First Class cars have plush seats, lamps, and heated air; the Third Class seats have wooden benches and crowded conditions; people sleep on the floor

Day 8 Chapter 2

To Discuss After You Read

Q: Is everyone in America equal?
A: no, some people are wealthy and can afford to pay for expensive tickets; yes, in that there are not lords and kings, which would be “higher” in the social structure than farmers

Prairie School

Day 9 Chapters 3–4

To Discuss After You Read

Q: What is the Svea Society? [chap. 3]
A: people from Sweden who help the immigrants

Q: How did the family travel to their new home? [chap. 4]
A: by railroad and on a steamboat

Setting
Colorado in 1880.

Overview
Noah Bidson loves living on the prairie, and sees no use for reading and writing. When his Aunt Dora comes to teach him, he stubbornly avoids lessons for a week. Then Aunt Dora shows him how much more she knows about the prairie because she can read. Intrigued, Noah agrees to learn. And once he starts, he realizes he loves learning! He can understand the world around him better because of the books he reads.

Vocabulary

sod house: a house built with grass-covered soil that is held together in brick-like clumps by the roots. [chap. 1]

To Discuss After You Read

Q: What chores did Noah do? [chap. 1]
A: hauled water, fed animals, kept snakes out of the house, kept the hearth fire lit

Q: Why is Mrs. Bidson surprised when she sees her sister? [chap. 2]
A: Dora was in an accident and became paralyzed

Q: How does Noah avoid learning? [chap. 3]
A: he excuses himself to do chores, which he does as slowly as possible; he knows his aunt can’t chase him, so he simply stays away from the house

To Discuss After You Read

Prairie School

Day 11

Chapters 4–5

Q: How does Aunt Dora demonstrate to Noah that reading can be useful? [chap. 4]

A: she asks him about his beloved prairie; when he doesn’t know the answers, she reads facts and teaches him

Q: How does reading help Aunt Dora? [chap. 5]

A: it helps her understand what she sees and hears

Day 12

Chapters 6–8

To Discuss After You Read

Q: When Noah recites the alphabet, how do his parents respond? [chap. 6]

A: his father smacks the table in excitement, and his mother claps for joy

Read Henry Wadsworth Longfellow’s “Psalm of Life.”

A Psalm Of Life

WHAT THE HEART OF THE YOUNG MAN
SAID TO THE PSALMIST

TELL me not, in mournful numbers,
Life is but an empty dream!—
For the soul is dead that slumbers,
And things are not what they seem.

Life is real! Life is earnest!
And the grave is not its goal;
Dust thou art, to dust returnest,
Was not spoken of the soul.

Not enjoyment, and not sorrow,
Is our destined end or way;
But to act, that each to-morrow
Find us farther than to-day.

Art is long, and Time is fleeting,
And our hearts, though stout and brave,
Still, like muffled drums, are beating
Funeral marches to the grave.

In the world’s broad field of battle,
In the bivouac of Life,
Be not like dumb, driven cattle!
Be a hero in the strife!

Trust no Future, howe’er pleasant!
Let the dead Past bury its dead!
Act,—act in the living Present!
Heart within, and God o’erhead!

Lives of great men all remind us
We can make our lives sublime,
And, departing, leave behind us
Footprints on the sands of time;

Footprints, that perhaps another,
Sailing o’er life’s solemn main,
A forlorn and shipwrecked brother,
Seeing, shall take heart again.

Let us, then, be up and doing,
With a heart for any fate;
Still achieving, still pursuing,
Learn to labor and to wait.

To Discuss After You Read

Q: What new tradition did the family begin after dinner? [chap. 7]

A: Noah would read to them

Q: What can Noah read? [chap. 8]

A: he can read the whole world—and he can write about it, too
Keep the Lights Burning, Abbie

Setting
Matinicus Rock, off the coast of Maine, in 1856.

Overview
When Abbie's father sails from his island lighthouse for the afternoon to bring back needed supplies, he reminds Abbie that she is responsible for the lighthouse until his return. A storm begins and prevents her father's return. Abbie cares for the lighthouse for four weeks while she waits for calm seas.

To Discuss After You Read

Q: Why did Papa go to town?

A: Mama needed medicine, the lights needed oil, and the family needed food

Riding the Pony Express

Setting
Western USA; 1860.

Overview
Dick travels to St. Joseph, Missouri in 1860 to connect with his dad. Once there, he discovers his dad is not in town because he is riding cross-country on the Pony Express. The Pony Express is a fast mail service in the days before the country was spanned by the railroad or telegraph. The Pony Express used relays of horses, fresh horses waiting at stations located about every ten miles, all the way across the country. Each rider would make, on average, a 70-mile “run,” switching horses about six times, before he would pass his saddle-bags to the next man. Pony Express riders faced many dangers and hardships, but the motto “The mail must go through” was an urgent reality. What a great introduction to this memorable era in American history!

To Discuss After You Read

Q: Why does Dick travel to St. Joe?

A: His aunt sent him from New York to live with his father
